

Language
of LOVE
A Flirty, Festive Anthology

Edited by
Astrid Ohletz and Lee Winter

Introduction

Language of Love is a diverse, festive collection of fun short stories that shows laughs, loves, and lives are universal.

Eleven lesbian fiction authors, many of whom are award winners, offer diverse tales of romance, adventure, humor, and whimsy, set against the holiday season in South Africa, Australia, England, Wales, Scotland, Germany, India, Jamaica, and the US.

Whether Christmas or Chanukah or something else is being celebrated, this disarming book offers a wonderful glimpse into women's festive experiences all over the world. The touch, taste, and smell of celebrations burst into life.

We hope you enjoy reading Language of Love as much as we enjoyed bringing it to you.

Astrid Ohletz

Lee Winter

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	v
The Friend by Lee Winter.....	1
Deck the Halls with Bullets and Holly by Alex K. Thorne.....	27
Mask by Sheryn Munir.....	45
Love Just Is by Jody Klaire.....	68
Grand Market Bliss by Fiona Zedde.....	93
Orphans' Christmas by Cheyenne Blue.....	117
And The Bells Are Ringing Out by Lola Keeley.....	141
Paula Gets a Pony Ranch by Patricia Penn.....	158
Four Chanukahs and a Bat Mitzvah by Cindy Rizzo.....	184
The Night Before Christmas— a Cumbrian Tale by Andrea Bramhall.....	206
It's in the Pudding by Emma Weimann.....	231
About the Authors .....	253
Other Books from Ylva Publishing .....	261